PROCLAMATION AND RESPONSE

*The Call to Worship

(adapted from <http://www.caldwellumc.org/>)

One: If the human body – body of blood and muscle – is to live, it needs salt.

All: If the body of Christ – body of peace and justice – is to live, it needs us!

One: If the earthly creation is to flourish, it needs the sun's light.

All: If the new creation we are in Christ is to flourish, we need the Spirit's light!

One: Jesus says we are salt of the earth, but if salt isn't salty, it isn't what it's meant to be! Jesus says we are light in the world, but if light doesn't shine, it isn't what it's meant to be.

All: We shall be who we are meant to be in Christ: a welcoming oasis, faithful followers, compassionate community, a justice-doing people, giving gratitude and glory to God!

Time of Prayer – During the prayer chorus, ushers will collect your yellow prayer cards to deliver to the pastor.

*Prayer Chorus W&S #3137: “Lord Jesus Christ”

Lord Jesus Christ, your light shines withing us.

Let not my doubts nor my darkness speak to me.

Lord Jesus Christ, your light shines within us.

Let my heart always welcome your love.

Silent Meditation and Lifting our Celebrations and Concerns In Prayer

The Lord’s Prayer – Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture Lesson: Matthew 5:1-16

Matthew 5:1-16

Pew Bible N.T. pg. 4

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. <sup>2</sup> And he began to speak and taught them, saying:

<sup>3</sup>“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

<sup>4</sup>“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

<sup>5</sup> “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

<sup>6</sup>“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup>“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

<sup>8</sup> “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

<sup>9</sup>“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.”

<sup>10</sup> “Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> “Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

<sup>13</sup> “You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything but is thrown out and trampled underfoot. <sup>14</sup> “You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. <sup>15</sup> People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. <sup>16</sup> In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.

Our church. Our story.

Last month, we learned about the very beginnings of our church in 1851 and the roles Caroline and John Moore would play as founders of our congregation and new community members. Caroline, especially, was very active in the Sunday School department for 49 years! In 1887 Caroline was also one of 24 women who were the founding members of Saginaw General Hospital, “despite the doubts of their wealthy husbands and the skepticism of the city’ doctors.” John became a judge, served one term as mayor, was a candidate for governor, and an active member of the school board, having a school named for him. Our first article ended with the fire that destroyed the original church building in 1884.

The next chapter in our church’s long history begins in the ruins of that terrible fire. No sooner were the ruins cleared than planning began for a grand new church. It would be of Ashlar stone and brick, measuring 70ft. x 110ft., and with a steeple soaring 98ft. high, all at a cost of $21,000. The Saginaw Evening News, in a long January 24, 1886 article, gave a detailed description of every part of the new building including the exterior, the auditorium, the frescoing, the windows and the lecture room, further noting, “The church has one of the best locations in the city.” (Corner of S. Michigan & Adams.)

One of our distinguished members in the late 1800s was Aaron T. Bliss who came to Saginaw after the Civil War, prospered in the lumber industry and, at some point, joined our church. Having served a term as a state senator, Bliss was elected to Congress in 1888. By then we had become the Methodist Episcopal Church and continued to grow. The 1898 church directory listed 343 members, including A.T. Bliss as a Trustee.

On November 13, 1900, Caroline Moore, then our only remaining original founder, died from complications of a stroke at the Moore summer home in Bay View, MI. Rev. T.C. Gardner, a family friend said of her “...a lady of good mental endowments, of amiable disposition, of unobtrusive manners, whose truly womanly nature flows in the deep and quiet channels of those affections and sympathies that are eminently religious and domestic.” Her grave and monument are in lot 61 in Saginaw’s Oakwood Cemetery.

The year ended on a happier note when Aaron Bliss was elected the 25th governor of Michigan, while still maintaining his position as Trustee for the church.

In 1901 we celebrated our 50th anniversary with more than 400 members. The week-long celebration ended with an elaborate banquet. In 1902 Aaron Bliss was reelected governor, beating his opponent who happened to be John Moore's son-in-law. Our church's name kept changing. By 1921 we were the First Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1939, as the result of the merger of three denominations, we became the First Methodist Church.

During World War Two, our church's Rev. Closson wrote to church members in military service from 1943-45. The package always included cookies! The recipients of the letters and cookies often wrote back and Rev. Closson saved all 99 of the letters, which we still have today! All the letters are interesting.

One example is from Graham Irish, who had recently arrived in New Guinea. Here's an excerpt: "...to be truthful about it, I'm not sure I had a Mother's Day this year. It so happened that I was on an army transport at that time, enroute to New Guinea from a ten month stay in the Hawaiian Islands. We crossed the international date line during the night on Saturday, so when we awoke in the morning it was Monday. The Sunday we had skipped was Mother's Day..."

Restored helps us see our mess through the eyes of Christ. Using Scripture, and the writings of Ignatius of Loyola, John of the Cross, St. Augustine, John Wesley, Evelyn Underhill, and others, Berlin encourages reflection and meditation through our own brokenness. Only then can we focus on the cross as the place where we truly surrender control, leave our mess, and find redemption.
